

The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). I oppose their petition and ask the FCC to recognize my right to privacy by rejecting their claim. Because I have chosen to conduct business with them does not mean I relinquish my right to privacy. There are other means, mass mailings, their internet sights, emails, etc they may use to contact me. Please don't let them use the telephone since there are other non-distruptive means of communications at their disposal.

Thank you,
Pat Moore
